

Candidate's F.A.Q.s about Online Exam Delivery

As you are aware, the 2022 membership and fellowship written examinations will be held using online delivery. Some candidates have posed important questions regarding what to prepare ahead, and what to expect on the day. To ensure all candidates are fully-informed, the following answers to your questions have been compiled.

Do you have a question that is still unanswered? Please send to examinations@anzcvs.org.au

Q1: What are the minimum requirements for my laptop?

Answer: Please refer to the following table for the minimum requirements for your examination device. We suggest you check these details well in advance.

Item	Minimum Requirement	Recommended Requirement
Operating System	Windows 8.1 MacOS 10.15	Windows 10 or later MacOS 10.15.7 or later
Memory	2 GB	4 GB or more
CPU	2 Core 1.8 GHz for Win 2 Core 8 GHz for Mac	4 Core 2.0 GHz or above for Win 4 Core 8 GHz or above for Mac
Hard Drive	1 GB free space	5 GB free space or more

*Site for testing bandwidth & latency: <https://speedtest.telstra.com/>. All chosen examination venues meet the above bandwidth and latency requirements.

Q2: Will I need to remove files from my laptop prior to the examination?

Answer: No, you will not be required to remove any content from your laptop as the online system will not permit you to open any other files on your computer while the examination is in progress.

Q3: Do I have to install a program to do the examination?

Answer: Yes, you will receive instructions on how to download the application to access the online system, including login details.

Q4: Can the College give me a sample exam showing how a question would look and the format in which I need to answer?

Answer: Yes, you will be given access to a sample examination which you can access as many times as you wish. A short video will also be available to walk you through the whole process from the beginning, outlining everything you need to know to find your way around.

Q5: Will I be given examination answer booklets to write in?

Answer: No, you will enter all your answers directly on your laptop. No answer booklets will be required.

Q6: Will I type my answers in the online paper?

Answer: Yes, text boxes for each question, suitable to the question type, will be clearly shown on your screen as part of each question. For example, if your paper has multiple-choice questions, you will be required to click a button for the answer you choose and for longer questions, requiring more writing in the response, an expandable text box will be provided.

Q7: Is there facility to draw diagrams as part of my answer?

Answer: No, you will not be required to draw any diagrams. Some examinations will show images, tables, or diagrams within the questions.

Q8: Can I bring my own separate keyboard and mouse to use with the laptop?

Answer: Yes, you can bring in a separate keyboard and your mouse to connect to your laptop if you wish.

Q9: Will I be provided with scrap paper to make notes during perusal time?

Answer: Yes, one piece of blank scrap paper will be provided to you. The scrap paper can be used for notes during perusal time or jottings during the examination. The paper will be collected at the end of the examination and will not be uploaded or used for marking purposes.

Q10: Will I have a problem being able to complete the examination if I cannot type fast?

Answer: No, you should not be overly concerned with how fast you type. Examiners have taken this into consideration in design of the examination. All examinations are time limited though, so you will still need to manage your time well, just as you would in a handwritten examination.

Q11: If I make typos when answering my questions, will I be penalised when marked?

Answer: No, you will not be penalised for a couple of general typos however, there may be penalty if it affects the accuracy of your answer. Of course, it is advisable to ensure your answers are as well communicated as possible when completing any examination regardless of the conditions.

Q12: Can I complete the exam using pen and paper?

Answer: No, it is expected that you enter responses electronically, but remember to bring a pen for writing on your scrap paper.

Q13: Am I allowed to bring ear plugs to block out keyboard noise?

Answer: Yes, ear plugs will be permitted to use during the examination. Headphones will NOT be permitted
