

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS FOR THE EQUINE CHAPTER RESEARCH SESSION, ANZCVS SCIENCE WEEK, 6th July 2018

The deadline for abstract submission is the 15th May 2018

Abstracts should be submitted via email to presidentequine@anzcv.org.au

Authors will be notified of acceptance by the end of May 2018

Accepted abstracts will be included in the conference proceedings.

The abstracts can take the form of original research, retrospective case series and/or case reports/small case series.

Please ensure that your abstract follows these guidelines and format:

Title - Top line: Title bolded in capitals. Justified.

Authors and affiliations 2nd line: Names of authors with presenting author underlined. Justified

Introduction

Materials and Methods or Case History (including any diagnostic tests/techniques)

Results or Clinical Outcome

Relevance to Clinical Equine Practice

Paper size: A4 Paper (21cm x 29.7cm) one side only, using single line spacing

Font: Calibri

Font Size: 11 pt

Margins: LHS & RHS margins 3cm. Top & Bottom margins 2.5cm

Set Language to English (Australian) and spell check accordingly.

Layout: Paragraphs: One line to be left between paragraphs and no indentation required. Subheadings: Calibri, Bold, 11 pt

All abstracts must be accompanied by a confirmation that the work was subject to an ethical approval process and details of this approval should be stated.

The presentation time is 15 minutes with an additional 5 minutes for questions and discussion. Presentations will be peer-reviewed by 2 appointed judges present on the day. Prizes for the best two presentations will be awarded on Saturday 7th July following collation of marks.